

I support the 'DO NOT CALL'law in a time when privacy and consumer rights are in constant jeopardy. In the end, the lack of enforcement costs all of us in a variety of very damaging ways. I am for protection by prevention.